Article 9(a) Shareholders Voting Rights When Corporation Operates Without a Board of Directors

At any time this corporation is operating without a Board of Directors (as authorized by Section 33-18-210(a) of the 1976 South Carolina Code of Laws, as amended, or any succeeding statute of like tenor and effect), all of the corporation powers shall be exercised by or under authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of the Shareholders. Any and all actions which may, or are required to be taken by either vote of the Board of Directors, vote of the Board of Directors and Shareholders, including without limitation, the election of officers and the determination of the duties of officers, shall be authorized by the vote of the holders of fifty-one percent (51%) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Article 9(b) Preemptive Rights

Shareholders shall have preemptive rights with respect to all shares issued by the corporation.

Article 9(c) Articles of Amendment

Amendment of these Articles of Incorporation shall require the vote of the holders of fifty-one percent (51%) of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Article 9(d) Quorum and Voting

The attendance of holders of fifty-one percent (51%) of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote at any meeting shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Shareholders for the transaction of any business. Any person designated by the Shareholder may act as a proxy for an absent Shareholder. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote by the holders of fifty-one percent (51%) of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting shall be the act of the Shareholders.

Article 9(e) Buy-Sell Agreement

The sale, encumbrance, or other disposition of the shares issued by this corporation may be subject to the terms and conditions of a buy-sell agreement, by and among the shareholders and this corporation, with a copy of such agreement, if one exists, being filed in the office of the corporation and to be furnished without charge to any Shareholder subject to the agreement upon written request.

Article 9(f) Issuance of Additional Shares

No additional shares of the corporation shall be authorized or issued without the prior written consent of the holders of fifty-one percent (51%) of the issued and outstanding shares entitled to vote.

Article 9(g) S Corporation Protection Provision

At any time after the corporation has filed an S corporation election (and prior to the corporation having filed a voluntary revocation of the election pursuant to Section 1362(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any succeeding statute of like tenor and effect), the corporation shall not (1) authorize any securities which will cause the corporation to have classes that vary other than by voting rights, nor (2) borrow money from any shareholder under terms that would cause such borrowing to be treated as an additional security or class of stock. Any such attempted borrowing or authorization of a different class of stock which violate the provisions of the first sentence of this Article shall be void ab initio and shall not be deemed to be a security or obligation of this corporation. This Article may not be amended, modified or deleted without the prior approval of all of the voting shares of the corporation.

Article 9(h) Restriction on Transfer to Prevent Loss of S Corporations Status

The following restriction on the transfer of shares shall be in effect at any time after the corporation has filed an S corporation election (and prior to the corporation having filed a voluntary revocation of the election pursuant to Section 1362(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any succeeding statute of like tenor and effect): No shares of the corporation shall be transferred either directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, without the prior written determination of the Shareholders, or by an attorney appointed by the Shareholders to give such an opinion, that the proposed transfer will not cause the S corporation election to be terminated.

Article 9(i) Indemnification

The corporation shall indemnify and advance expenses to its officers, employees and agents to the full extent permitted by the South Carolina Business Corporation Act of 1988, as amended.

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

For filing for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned your EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above.
Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

Based on the information received from you or your representative, you must file the following form(s) by the date(s) shown.

us at the phone number or write to us at the address shown at the top of this notice.
If you need help in determining your annual accounting period (tax year), see Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods.

We assigned you a tax classification based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination of your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2004-1, 2004-1 I.R.B. 1 (or superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue). Note: Certain tax classification elections can be requested by filing Form 8832, Entity Classification Election. See Form 8832 and its instructions for additional information.
